

9th QU Health Sector Annual Research Conference 2025

Advancements in Health Research: Bridging Basic and Clinical Sciences

Tuesday, May 27th, 2025 (8:00 – 16:00)

Qatar University, Student Affairs Building (I11)

Target Audience: Physicians, Pharmacists, Nurses, Complementary Medicine, Dentists, Allied Healthcare Practitioners, Researchers and Health Educators

Activity Code: AGI-03-P190

Aim: To foster collaborative research, highlighting advancements in basic, translational and clinical research, and emphasizing the power of collaboration in advancing health solutions.

Overall Learning Objectives:

This conference is designed to bring together healthcare professionals, educators, and researchers, to share knowledge and explore solutions to the most pressing healthcare challenges through collaborative research in areas of health professions education, mental health, precision medicine, drug design and delivery, metabolic and diabetes disorders and reproductive medicine.

Specific Objectives:

1. To discuss emerging technologies that improve HPE and strategies to streamline training for healthcare workflows using collaborative approaches.
2. To examine recent trends in personalized mental health interventions and strategies to integrate mental health support in chronic diseases care plans.
3. To discuss the advances in drug design and delivery and the use of AI-driven metabolomics in identifying biomarkers.
4. To describe the recent advancements in reproductive medicine and reproductive consequences of obesity in the population.
5. To discuss emerging application of genomics risk stratification and how pharmacogenetics optimizes patient-centered care.
6. To examine the advances in approaches to reduce the obesity rates at individual, national, and international levels.

Speakers

Dr. Amal Al Omri, Chief Scientific Officer at the King Hussein Cancer Center (KHCC), Jordan; Dr Palli valappila Abdul rouf, Director Clinical Trial Unit (CTU), Hamad Medical Corporation, Doha, Qatar; Dr. Ahsan Sethi, Associate Professor of Public Health, College of Health Sciences, Qatar University, Doha, Qatar; Dr. Salma Khaled, Associate Professor of Behavioral Sciences, College of Medicine, Qatar University, Doha, Qatar; Dr. Nashiru Bella, Professor of Pharmaceutical Sciences; College of Pharmacy, Qatar University, Doha, Qatar; Dr. Maha Abdulla H I Al-Asmakh, Associate Professor and Department Head of Biomedical Sciences, College of Health Sciences, Qatar University, Doha, Qatar; Dr. Rozaimi Bin Mohamad Razali, Assistant Professor of Biomedical Sciences, College of Health Sciences, Qatar University, Doha, Qatar; Dr. Abdella Mohammed Habib, Assistant Professor of Biochemistry, College of Medicine, Qatar University, Doha, Qatar; Dr. Mashael Nedham A J Alshafai, Strategic Advisor, Vice President for Health and Medical Sciences Office, Qatar University, Doha, Qatar; Dr. Mohamed Aghar N M Elrayess, Section Head of Basic Research, Vice President for Health and Medical Sciences Office Qatar University, Doha, Qatar
